The Making Movies That Matter (MMTM) Youth Short Film Festival is one of Councilmember John Lee's cornerstone projects and a heartfelt arts education gift to the K-12 public and private school community in Council District 12 (CD12). Piloted in 2016 with 27 sponsored schools and 450 K-12 students, the MMTM Project has grown to be the largest film festival of its kind in the country with over 5,000 filmmakers creating 600+ films to date.

Please be aware that the RSVP portal at www.cd12movies.com opens on April 7th where guests can request their reserved seats for the Red Carpet Gala and Juried Film Festival.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to my Senior Advisor and Project Coordinator, Ron Rubine. Ron can be reached at:
